Call for Expression of Interest

Nascent Solutions is interested in responding to the anticipated FY 2020 Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) by the US Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food for Progress (FFPr) for Côte d'Ivoire, Ghana and Nigeria. In response to this solicitation, Nascent is inviting letters of interest from experienced companies to support its bid for the 2020 FFPr call.

Scope of Work

Nascent expects the selected service provider to:

1. Conduct comprehensive high-level market analysis
2. Identify viable commodities for the project
3. Develop a detailed monetization plan for each of the identified US commodities.
4. Interact with both the public and private sectors in the target country(s) and identify potential buyers
5. Assume responsibility of the shipping, transportation, storage and sale of all project commodities
6. Monitor the market situation and prepare regular updates for Nascent and the USDA through the project life.

Application

Interested service providers can respond to this call by submitting a 3-5-page application including cover page, a detailed capacity statement including technical experience in conducting USAID/USDA compliant market analysis and effective and efficient management of the sale of US Commodities. The applicant should demonstrate its mastery of the market situation in the target countries as well as the West African region including the country import policies and the capacity to work with governments and local partners, and contractors in the region.
